burg American line in this city, has been out on buil. He is also under charges in the Federal Court, alleging he was mixed up in plots against the Welland Canal and other Canadian enterprises. He came into the Special Sessions to-day with Attorney John B. Stanchfield, who asked Justices Edwards, Garvin and Kernochan to accept Koenig's plea of suilty and suspend sentence. "The defendant having pleaded guilty," District Attorney Swann said to the court, "and having heretofure enjoyed a good reputation in the business community, I recommend sen-tence be suspended during his good behavior. This charge is a mere incident in a matter pending in the Federal courts. I have had the de-fendant's character looked into thoroughly, in accordance with the mod-ern method of administering justice. The District Attorney does not approve of making convicts of substan-tial business men who are brought in-to court through a mistake in judg-

The Justices conferred and sus-pended sentence. Keenig was then taken into a side room and his finger prints were taken.

STRIKING BUS DRIVERS WIN HIGHER PAY OFFER

Only Ten of Company's Autos Running-Men Urged to Return. The Fifth Avenue Coach Company, 250 of whose chauffeurs are on strike for higher pay, recognition of their union and reinstatement of twelve discharged men, had ten buses running to-day, two more than yesterday. Most of them ran from Washington Square to Ninetieth Street, but there was an occasional bus on Riverside At the office of President Meade it was said that a letter had been sent to the striking employees offering them new and higher rates for ser-vice and overtime if they would re-
